In the modern world, the concept of a home has evolved as a web of connections beyond space. Spectra Parijatha is central to this approach - to create a home that is far more inclusive than one could imagine. The aesthetics of living space is a curated dialogue between the indoors and outdoors. To bring the natural elements into the homes, providing access to natural light, fresh air and punctuated landscaping. The idea was to be indifferent from the motley brick and mortar structures and create lifestyle spaces that elevate a user centric community. As an ode to the site context, the majority of greenery lies on natural ground, conserving the ecological sentiments.

Each home combines the spectrum of preferences of a modern-day home buyer, starting with a unique concept of the "Aangan" – a private foyer extending outside the main door that users can personalize. The luxurious L-Shaped living-dining area offers flexible furnishing options. The open plan kitchen with its flexible layout combined with the utility is efficient with its space utilization. Every room establishes an outward connect through the balconies, standouts and picture windows. The walk-in closets are plugged in to the bedrooms to neatly separate the storage and rest areas, allowing the rooms to be clear of clutter. There is an innate sense of funneling the privacy from the living to the bedrooms.

Spectra Parijatha is a project that encapsulates a wide choice of necessities, organized into opulent spaces. It is a resurgence of homes with unbridled luxury. It truly encapsulates, The Best of Everything.
